Dear Doctor Burleigh,      Re: COSTELLO Research

As you feel that you owe me some money, I have not been too good at charging, but perhaps this is the better way to help you to help me.

I shall enclose a separate billing. However, I am still waiting for JOHN COSTELLO to come through from Ottawa.

When it is on reel, which most materiels are now, and all Lower Canada Land Papers are; so hence we patiently play the WAITING game.

Trusting you will not be mad at me, for the amount, but this is only a portion of the cost; as it takes hours to go through these reels as you know, but this will help the cause along for my research.

Sincerely,
Your comrad in the Genealogical field

Dear Doctor Smith:

As you feel that you are in some danger, I have no doubt that you are right, but please do not let this be the reason to leave you in danger.
I shall enclose a separate letter, however, I am sorry that the United Nations is not able to come through.
When it is on the way, which most certainly are now, and lower cases (and money) are so much as we have to the United Nations.
Thinking you will not be able to get the money, but this is only a matter of time. If you want to go through these cases as you know, but this will take some time, not by accident.

Sincerely,
For the United Nations

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Hope by now you have found my previous letter. We have just returned from a course in Connecticut State University on History and Genealogy, and advanced course, do not know if I am any wiser, but has the joy and privilege of searching on a professional bases through their files, and documents. All their holdings are in one spot, and it is a Genealosits' dream to be able to stay in one spot and search.

I am still combing the records in the Ottawa Archives on a consistent basis, and will be starting to go through the Haldiman papers, on a systematic basis. Wish I had a fortune to get this documented paper work in my hands. By the way we had a very large amount of money stolen in Connecticut, they are still trying to track it down, but it was quite a loss; as Ed being off work for so long, and then this - wow it sure hits' one, and my dreams of buying more books went right out the window. It was a BLACK Boy, and he was seen, and the lady was afraid to say anything. I am still using my ESP to get to him, hope it works.

I may have more on the Costello somewheres else, and will keep it in mind, when I see it.

Would you like me to try and get the marriage in Quebec, it must be somewhere, but it will be up to you, and see what we shall come up with.

Will keep an eye on the lower Canada Land papers, for more, and see what may come to light. You are very fortunate. It really has been difficult on the LIVINGSTONS, just cannot come up with them. One Solomon Dunham brough in 360 Loyalists into this area SECRETLY, but no listing of names, then HUGH CAMPBELL Sr. brought up 180 from his area in the states SECRETLY to Johnstown, these were his friends and relatives, but no listing once again. Oh me. I just got the book on CAPT JOHN BROWN; as I have two captains in two generations, oh me, he had 20 children, that guy went to bed too often -----

Sincerely, Mildred

If you cannot read
any of these let me know & I will type them.

Dear Sir

I received your kind letter of the 11th

and am glad to hear that you are interested in the subject of the abolition of the slave trade

It does not appear that the abolition
has received a great deal of attention

in the House of Commons. I have written to the Editor of the Times on the subject
